Manulife

News Release

Manulife and MRT Corp sign contract to change Semantan station into Manulife Semantan MRT Station

From left: Manulife Asset Management Service Bhd CEO Jason Chong, Manulife Greater China emerging market executive vice president and GM Michael Huddart, Manulife Holdings Bhd group CEO MarkO'Dell, chairman Datuk Dr Zaha Rina and chief marketing officer and pricing officer Gho Han Jaa officiating the naming rights to the Manulife Semantan MRT station on Aug 21.

Reported by Focus Malaysia (News), 26 August 2017

(From left) Manulife Asset Management Services Bhd CEO Jason Chong, Manulife Greater China executive vice-president and general manager (emerging market) Michael Huddart, Manulife Holdings Bhd group CEO Mark O'Dell, Manulife Holdings chairman Datuk Dr Zaha Rina Zahari and Manulife Holdings chief marketing officer and pricing officer Gho Han Jaa at a ceremony to mark the group being granted the naming rights to the Semantan mass rapid transit station. Now known as the Manulife Semantan MRT Station, it is a five-minute walk from Menara Manulife in Kuala Lumpur.

Reported by The Edge (Corporate), 28 August 2017