

Manulife Malaysia Awarded CSR Malaysia Award 2018

Kuala Lumpur – Manulife Malaysia clinched the CSR Malaysia Award 2018, Company of the Year in the Financial Services Category for Pioneering Community Health & Children Welfare Initiatives.

Held recently, the awards event was graced by Malaysia’s Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Women, Family and Community Development, Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail. The award was received by Manulife Malaysia’s Group Chief Executive Officer, Mark O’Dell.

Upon receiving the recognition, he said, “For Manulife, giving back to the community in which we operate is ingrained in our culture and has been throughout the company’s history. It is part of our commitment as an active and caring corporate citizen in Malaysia to help people lead better lives, and we do this by initiating several Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) projects throughout the year.”

The prestigious event is held to provide a platform to celebrate outstanding achievers and inspiring corporations for their efforts in creating a better Malaysia through their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives. The organiser, CSR Malaysia, is a free publication magazine under RHA Media Sdn Bhd. It shares and supports Malaysian corporations’ commitment towards the community at large while initiating its own CSR programmes.
