

Date: 30 October 2020

Dear Valued Customer,

CLOSURE OF MANULIFE ASIAN SMALL CAP GROWTH FUND

We wish to inform you that effective from 10 February 2021, Manulife Asian Small Cap Growth Fund (MASC GF) will be closed from our overall investment-linked funds portfolio. This is following our fund review to ensure that we continue to deliver our long term commitment to our customers.

How does this impact you?

All units available under MASC GF from your policy will be switched to Manulife Asia-Pacific REIT Fund (MAPRF) on 10 February 2021, based on the prevailing net asset value per unit (market value).

As part of this transition, any premiums paid from 02 February 2021 onwards will also be allocated to MAPRF, based on the existing fund allocation prescribed for MASC GF.

All other benefits under your insurance policy remain as is and will not be impacted.

Why Manulife Asia-Pacific REIT Fund (MAPRF)?

MAPRF invests in a diversified portfolio of REITs and infrastructure funds within the Asia-Pacific region which may be of your interest. Enclosed is a copy of the Fund Fact Sheet for your reference.

What are the options available to you?

Option 1: Manulife Asia-Pacific REIT Fund is your preferred investment-linked fund for now.

No action is required. Units under your current Manulife Asian Small Cap Growth Fund will be automatically switched to Manulife Asia-Pacific REIT Fund on 10 February 2021.

Option 2: You may choose to switch to a different investment-linked fund.

You may choose to switch to any of the available funds under your policy by performing Fund Switching at no charge. Kindly visit our website for more information on the list of available funds at <https://www.manulife.com.my/en/individual/funds/funds.html/>

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)
Q01 : What are the reasons for the fund closure?

A01 : In our recent fund review, we noted that the fund size of this fund is at a level where it can no longer operate in an economically efficient manner. For any investment-linked fund to be managed efficiently, the fund has to be sizeable. To date, the net inflow for this fund is at low levels and with the small fund size, it is challenging for this fund to operate at its optimum level.

Q02 : What is the difference between the two funds?

A02 : The table below shows the key information of the two funds.

	Manulife Asian Small Cap Growth Fund	Manulife Asia-Pacific REIT Fund
Launch Date	12 January 2015	3 July 2017
Fund Risk Profile	High	Moderate to high
Investment Objective	Manulife Asian Small Cap Growth Fund (MASC GF) aims to provide long term capital growth for investors who hold a long term investment view and who are prepared to accept significant fluctuations in the value of their investments.	Manulife Asia-Pacific REIT Fund (MAPRF) aims to provide long-term capital appreciation and sustainable income through a combined investment in other collective investment schemes, namely REITs and infrastructure funds/trusts.
Investment Strategy	MASC GF is a feeder fund and invests at least 95% of its Net Asset Value in Manulife Global Fund-Asian Small Cap Equity Fund (MGF-ASCEF). MGF-ASCEF investment portfolio will be made on a diversified basis, for which its underlying securities will consist mainly of equity related investments and equities of smaller capitalization companies in the Asian and/or Pacific region.	MAPRF is a feeder fund that invests at least 95% of its Net Asset Value in Manulife Investment Asia-Pacific REIT Fund ("MIAPRF"). MIAPRF focuses on a diversified portfolio of REITs and infrastructure funds/trusts with exposure primarily within the Asia-Pacific region that display a potential for capital appreciation via asset growth.
Strategic Asset Allocation	Target Fund 95-100%	Target Fund 95-100%
